#foalsNfocus

Here we are again, springtime. With the warmer temperatures and the greening of the landscape comes one of the most exhilarating times of the year for horsemen and women, foaling season! Hopes and dreams literally come to life.

#foalsNfocus is our weekly photo contest for the many heartwarming images breeders and photographers are capturing of the 2024 foal crop. The staff of Saddle Horse Report vote on the images and prizes are awarded for the top three each week.

Send your clear, high-resolution files to funkhouser@saddlehorereport.com and include the sex of the foal, the breeding, the owner and the photographer if different than the owner.

We had a great group with which to kick off the new season. An Emma Caruso photo of Melissa Moore and a colt by Sunrise's Ladies Man out of Double O'Rose took the Champion honors for week one. The Reserve Champion photo this week depicted a powerful exchange between a mare (Saralin Style) and her colt by Saralin Seabourn. Sally Longenecker submitted this shot.

Jimmy Stachowski sent in the Top 3 winner, a photo of a beautiful filly named Star Of Illusion (Wine Women And Song x Use Your Illusion).
